

Rules for participation in the exam for candidates for TGE Brokers organized in the form of a stationary meeting:

1. Participants should arrive at the exam venue at least 15 minutes before the start of the exam.
2. Before the exam, participants are asked to sign the attendance list.
3. Exam participants are required to present a document confirming their identity before taking the exam.
4. Persons whose identity cannot be verified for reasons beyond the control of TGE will not be admitted to the exam or will be admitted conditionally if such a decision is made by the Chair of the Examination Committee or his/her deputy.
5. Examinees should take the seat designated by TGE. Examinees are not allowed to change seats during the exam.
6. During the exam, only a pen, exam paper, and document confirming the participant's identity should be on the examiner's table.
7. Leaving the exam room during the exam is not permitted. The room may be left after the exam has ended and the exam paper has been submitted to the Examination Committee.
8. The examination committee may exclude from participation in the examination any Participants who, during the examination, use or provide assistance from others, use unallowed materials, or disrupt the examination. In such a situation, the exam paper of the excluded Participant will not be graded, and the excluded Participant will not be entitled to any claims against the Exchange due to exclusion from the exam.
9. Failure to comply with the above rules may result in the Participant's removal from the exam. In such a situation, the exam fee will not be refunded.
10. Persons who have completed the exam paper are requested to hand it over to the Examination Committee and leave the room.
11. The exam results will be sent by email within 5 days of the exam date.
